

FERREIRA WINE CELLARS

A place that symbolizes the trade mark of the city of Oporto: the Port Wine. Located in the historic area of Gaia, by River Douro, these wine cellars have an area especially prepared for events.

Founded by a family of winemakers from the Douro, in 1751, Ferreira possesses a rich tradition and a prominent role in the history of Porto Wine. With the name of the emblematic figure of D. Antónia Adelaide Ferreira, the Casa Ferreirinha, authored by Paul Wolf, is a unique facility for events, contemporary style, integrated in a wine cellar where there are more than 200 years ages wines of port blacksmith.

